

LEXI, The Goddess of modern things

There is a goddess named Lexi, the goddess of modern things. If you were an inventor, or a scientist, you might pray to her. Lexi has long curly black hair and wears new, modern clothes and makeup. She was turned immortal at 17, so she will be a teen forever. Her chariot is a dark blue convertible. Lexi's symbol is the cell phone. She was officially made a goddess in the 80's. Lexi is an important goddess. Without her, we would be pioneers!!!
