I understand that employment requires proof of eligibility to work in the United States according to the Immigration Reform Control Act of 1986, and I will provide the needed documentation to show my identity and employment eligibility. I also understand that applicants under age 16 must show a permit to work. I also understand that NU will complete a criminal background check.

This application is complete and accurate. False or missing information in my application materials will justify denial or termination of employment. If employed, I agree to conform to the rules and policies of Northwestern University and as stated in the Center for Talent Development Program Handbook. My employment and compensation can be terminated with or without cause and with or without notice, at any time by Northwestern University or myself. I understand that this is not a contract for employment. I further understand that my employment conditions are not based on an interview or a verbal statement by a Northwestern University employee.
