Develop Skills & Strategies for Working Effectively with Gifted Students

Essentials of Differentiation
Fall session: Weeks of Oct 19, 26, November 2, 16 (no class Nov. 9)
Instructor: Eric Calvert
- Week 1: Rationale for Differentiated Curriculum and Instruction
- Week 2: Strategies for Readiness-Based Differentiation
- Week 3: Strategies for Interest- and Choice-Based Differentiation
- Week 4: Assessing Differentiated Project-Based Experiences

Using Technology Tools to Differentiate
Winter session: January 11 – February 5
Instructor: Eric Calvert
- Week 1: Overview of Technology in Differentiation and Personalization
- Week 2: Using Technology to Differentiate Group and Center-Based Activities
- Week 3: Using Technology to Support “Twice Exceptional” Students
- Week 4: Differentiating with Game-Based Learning

Effective Identification & Program Development
Spring session: April 4 – 29
Instructor: Susan Corwith
- Week 1: Aligning Identification with Programs and Services
- Week 2: Assessment Tools and Uses
- Week 3: Using Data to Develop Appropriate Programming
- Week 4: Inclusive Identification of Underserved Populations

Details
- Time commitment: 2 – 4 hours/week for 4 weeks; all online/flexible
- Cost: $449/participant; $400 if 3 or more participants from one district; $250 for CTD teachers
- Maximum enrollment per session: 20 participants
- Professional Development Credits: Available

---

Online Four-Week Professional Development Modules

---

Center for Talent Development
Northwestern University