For those new to gifted education or looking for a refresher with the latest research and practices, CTD has developed Boot Camp to help educators and administrators develop the knowledge and skills they need to identify exceptional academic ability, provide advanced learners with appropriate services and instructional support, and help them achieve optimal growth.

For more information and to apply online: www.ctd.northwestern.edu/pd

To talk to a School Services team member, email us at ctd-school-services@northwestern.edu