

Northwestern University's Center for Talent Development

SERVICES FOR EDUCATORS AND FAMILIES

Student Courses, Assessments, Professional Learning Events and More!

For Educators and Administrators

- Consulting packages and tailored professional learning
- On-Demand training materials created and curated by CTD staff
- Gifted Education Boot Camp for Educators and Administrators
- Curriculum units and advanced courses for students

For Families and Students (Age 3 through grade 12)

- Enrichment and accelerated, credit-bearing courses
 - Online live, online flexibly paced, and in-person courses
 - Options for in-school or supplemental use (discounts for school groups)
 - Variety of subject areas and grade levels
 - Financial aid available for qualified students
- Leadership and Service-Learning programs
- Assessment (above-grade-level assessment for talent identification and program planning)
- Consulting for families

To learn more, contact CTD admissions at ctd-admissions@northwestern.edu. Visit our website at www.ctd.northwestern.edu.

617 Dartmouth Place, Evanston, IL 60208
847-491-3782
ctd@northwestern.edu
ctd.northwestern.edu

CTD helps educators & parents

Identify children's academic talent areas and learning needs;

Understand how talent develops;

Interpret and use assessment data to assist with academic planning;

Provide enrichment and accelerated courses, programs, and curriculum that meet children's academic and affective needs to reach full potential; and

Enhance knowledge and skills to more effectively meet the needs of advanced learners.

Northwestern | CTD

FOLLOW US

