Designing Flexible Career Pathways: A Parent's Guide Online Course

As the world of work keeps changing, so do the ways we help our kids get ready for it. This interactive series is your go-to guide for supporting your child's academic and career journey; from finger painting to college applications.

This online course is packed with practical tools, creative ideas, and fun strategies to help your child discover who they are and where they want to go.

Location: Online cohort

Thursdays: July 10, 17, 24, and 31

Time: 12:00–1:00 p.m. CST

Cost: $300 per registrant

What You'll Learn

- A flexible framework for thinking about career pathways (yes, even for parents with young children!)
- How to spark curiosity and confidence in your child at every age.
- Tips for turning everyday moments into meaningful exploration.
- Ways to keep things fun while building future-ready skills.
