

Center for Talent Development Professional Development Workshop

Total School Cluster Grouping and Differentiation

Facilitator: Dr. C. Matthew Fugate, Assistant Professor in Educational Psychology at University of Houston-Downtown

This workshop for educators and administrators explains how Total School Cluster Grouping works and how it facilitates differentiation. It is a research-supported model that benefits all learners, while providing full-time services to high-achieving students.

Program Details:

Date and Time: October 19, 2018 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Cost: $120/participant; $95/participant if 3 or more attending from one school or district; $95 for CTD teachers; $75 for SESP Students

Location: Hardin Hall, Northwestern's Evanston, IL Campus

Professional development credits are available.

www.ctd.northwestern.edu/ed-conf
847/467-0615
r-blair@northwestern.edu

Northwestern | CTD